Memorial Day is a day to honor those who have died in America's wars. Out of respect for the memory of the fallen and the spirit of the holiday, we ask that you not throw candy or blow horns during the parade.

§177. Conduct during hoisting, lowering or passing of flag

During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag or when the flag is passing in a parade or in review, all persons present except those in uniform should face the flag and stand at attention with the right hand over the heart. Those present in uniform should render the military salute. When not in uniform, men should remove their headdress with their right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. [<http://www.usflag.org/uscode36.html>]
